What does the Spiritual Cross of Jesus Christ mean to YOU?

Dear Reader - The Lord did not try to fool any of his disciples about Christianity. He told them what they must do and believe if they expected him to give them eternal life. He left it up to the individual; not to any couple, family, or nation. He gave them all freedom of choice to choose whosoever they wanted for their MASTER.

He did not tell them that everything would be alright but He told them that if they would accept him as Lord and Savior of their lives, they would suffer persecution, tribulation and some of them would even be put to death for the Gospel's sake. He made it plain to them that he would be with them in all their troubles and would deliver them in due time. He promised them peace, contentment and joy in the Holy Ghost in this world. He promised them power over all devils and temptations of the enemies of god, and most of all eternal life now and in the world to come.
